

Professional Background/Resume

Petra Heiser

1991-1994 Professional training as a nurse at Heilbronn Hospital

- After the nursing exam, first employment as a graduate nurse in the OR (general surgery, vascular surgery, trauma surgery/orthopaedics, urology, gynaecology, paediatric surgery)

1996-1999 Further training to become a surgical nurse at Ludwigsburg Hospital (general surgery, trauma surgery/orthopaedics, vascular surgery, urology, gynaecology, neurosurgery)

2000-2010 Head of nursing in urologic surgery for the SLK Hospital Group in Heilbronn

- Close cooperation with Prof. Rassweiler, assistance with internal and external medical congresses
- Training of new employees in the field of the urology with a focus on laparoscopy
- Cooperation with many short-term visiting physicians both from Germany and abroad

2002 Further training to become a mentor and practical instructor at SLK Hospital

2004 Further training to become a ward manager and manager of a functional unit at SLK Hospital

2007-2009 In-service studies at the Academy of Economic and Social Management in Heidelberg to become a Bachelor Professional for Social and Health Services specialising in:

- Management of residence/care homes
- Nursing management
- Quality management in health care

2010- now Lecturer, practical instructor and course administrator in the field of specialised further training in surgical nursing at Stuttgart Hospital